

John Parker, Secretary, Gippsland Trades and Labour Council, Australia

John Parker is currently Secretary of the Gippsland Trades and Labour Council and an Organiser for the Construction, Forestry, Mining and Energy Union (CFMEU) Construction Division. A carpenter by trade, John is a well respected and experienced Union Official with a commitment to fairness and justice for working people. Since 2003 John has led the reformed Gippsland Trades and Labour Council in to what has become high profile and progressive organization. He has sat on numerous government and community boards.