

Phil Galloway, Managing Director, Syncline Energy Pty Ltd

Phil has over 20 years experience in the resource and energy sector. He is the founding Managing Director of Syncline Energy Pty Ltd. He also led the recapitalization and is CEO of Eromanga Hydrocarbons NL which, as a result of exploration success, is currently developing oil discoveries in Brazil. Phil has held senior executive roles at BHP Billiton in London and Australia and, while at Credit Suisse First Boston, was an advisor to the Government of Victoria on the disaggregation and privatization of the Victorian electricity sector. Phil trained and worked as an engineer with Esso Australia and CRA (now RTZ).
