

Steve Davies, Policy Advisor, Australian Pipeline Industry Association

Steve Davies is the Policy Adviser of the Australian Pipeline Industry Association, working on economic and regulatory issues, the CPRS and is a member of the Government's Carbon Storage Taskforce.

Steve has held diverse roles in the private sector, industry associations and government and has significant experience in policy and regulatory environments. Prior to working with APIA, Steve worked in upstream petroleum policy and regulation for the Commonwealth Department of Resources, Energy and Tourism.