

Tenille Bentley, Business Development Manager, Liberty Resources.

Tenille Bentley is the Business Development Manager for Liberty Resources. Her skills in business are extensive in implementing high performing teams and business development, systems and processes with over eight years in the oil and gas and mining industry. Her formal education includes Marketing and Financial Services

Tenille Bentley has recently won the top 30 under 30 Australian Leading Entrepreneurs of the Year, has also been short listed in the Top 6 in WA as the Telstra Business Woman of the Year and nominated for the Who's Who of Australian Women National Publication 2009. Tenille is also the founder of The Global Good Foundation, her philanthropic work with the foundation, positions her well to achieve her objective of empowering others and bringing together world leaders to assist with this process.

From the early age of 18, Tenille has an impressive track record in property investing, an award winning music career. She has also built and run three businesses within the first year of her entrepreneur life – one of which saw a turnover of $400K in the first 6 months.